

FLINT PUBLIC LIBRARY

PUBLIC MEETING ROOM USE POLICY

The Trustees of the Flint Public Library have adopted the following policy in an attempt to ensure fair access to those who wish to use the public meeting room facilities of the Library. The Beverly Hospital Meeting Room is on the ground floor. It seats up to 114 people. This room is also divisible into two smaller rooms, seating 25-30 on each side. The Vining Family Quiet Study Room, located on the first floor, has seating for up to 6 people and The Trustees Meeting Room on the first floor has seating up to 8 people. These two rooms are available only when the Library is in operation (see #4, General Guidelines).

Use of Library Meeting Rooms by any group signifies acceptance of the terms of this policy.

General Guidelines

1. Library meeting areas are used primarily for library-sponsored activities and, therefore, the library retains the right to give priority to library-sponsored meetings, events, and programs in scheduling meeting room use.
2. Meeting rooms at the Flint Public Library are designed for groups that engage in educational, cultural, intellectual, or charitable activities. All meetings must be free and open to the public.¹ Groups which are affiliated with a business or commercial organization, enterprise, or any other type of entity which exists primarily for profit may not use the meeting facilities.
3. Adult sponsors must be present for children's groups.
4. The Vining Family Quiet Study Room and Trustees Room are available on a first come, first serve basis when the library is open. The Trustees Room can be reserved on a limited basis for meetings which do not interfere with the library's daily operations and services.
5. Smoking and alcoholic beverages are not allowed anywhere in the library.
6. Meeting rooms may not be used for social gatherings such as showers, birthday parties, dances, or any other closed meeting.
7. A scheduled employee of the Library must be in the building when the public is in attendance and be responsible for securing the building when the public has left. Meeting rooms will not be scheduled for use on Saturdays or on other days when the Library has announced closings.
8. Room set up is not provided by the Library. Time for setting up and cleaning up afterwards should be included in the meeting time requested.
9. The Library assumes no responsibility for private property brought into the building.

¹ "Open to the public" means that a member of the press or the general public may view the proceedings.

10. Library staff will not take or deliver messages for meeting participants except in an emergency.
11. Groups are responsible for compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and for providing qualified interpreters or auxiliary aids, upon request, for their programs.
12. Study groups are permitted to use the meeting rooms upon availability but must fill out an application and follow all rules and regulations. There is a five (5) person minimum for each room.
13. Non-profit organizations may collect donations to cover incidental expenses only, but may not solicit donations for fund-raising purposes or make sales, except for the sole benefit of the Library.
14. Use of the Library's meeting rooms does not constitute or imply an endorsement of viewpoints of participants in the program by any library staff or by the Board of Trustees. No advertisement or announcement implying such endorsement will be permitted.
15. Inclement weather may cause staff to close the Library with little or no notice. If in doubt, call 978-774-8132 to confirm that the Library is open.

1. Requests for use of a meeting room may be emailed to: meetings@flintpublib.org
A reply confirming or denying the request will be sent within 2 business days.

4. Requests will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis.
5. Rooms may be booked no more than 90 days in advance.
6. Notice of cancellation should be made as soon as possible. After 30 minutes, a group may forfeit its reservation if it fails to appear as scheduled.
7. If a group fails to show for two meetings in a row and does not call to cancel, all future reservations are forfeited until the person in charge of this group has met with the Library Director to review the guidelines and discuss their status.

Care and Use of Facilities

1. Please leave meeting rooms as they are found. If the furniture is rearranged, it should be returned to the original arrangement at the end of the meeting.
2. Furniture and/or equipment from the main area of the Library may not be brought into meeting rooms.
3. Please do not attach anything to walls or ceilings unless authorized by the director under the Exhibit and Display Policy #22.

4. Equipment, supplies, or personal effects cannot be stored or left in meeting rooms before or after use.
5. Attendance at meetings will be limited to the capacity of the individual meeting rooms. Seating and/or supplementary furniture are not allowed in areas outside the meeting rooms.
6. Simple refreshments may be served. Only clear liquids (e.g., apple juice) may be served -- no fruit punches or grape juice. The Library will provide a coffeepot, but cups, utensils, cream, sugar, or other equipment and supplies will be the responsibility of the group.
7. There will be no cooking or food preparation on site; dishwashing facilities are not available.
8. Please clean the kitchen facilities thoroughly if used; trash must be bagged.
9. The individual making the reservation, as well as the membership of the group as a whole, will be held responsible for any and all damages that may occur as a result of the use of the facilities.
10. The contact person for each group is responsible for ensuring that each member of his or her group is aware of and abides by these regulations.
11. Please abide by the instructions of Library personnel on site. Users of the meeting space may be asked to leave if use is deemed disruptive or in any way contrary to library policy.
12. Groups failing to comply with any part of this policy or the established procedures will be denied further use of the meeting rooms.
13. Any question of interpretation of this policy will be referred to the Director. Final determination rests with the Board of Trustees.

Use of Library meeting rooms by any group signifies acceptance of the terms of this policy.
